

Tenold Peterson – "Pastels"
September 1st - October 31st

Tenold presents his large format pastels for a lively exhibit full of color and movement. George McGuinness, a former journalist for the Wall Street Journal writes about Tenold's work, "Inspiration can strike anywhere, anytime. A single stroke can lead to an extended indenture to an elusive theme or search for understanding which for some can include a future by colored dust bound to the wall.
