

DIVA MEDIA ARTS - FALL 2006

www.proscenia.net/diva/calendar.htm

The DIVA Media Arts Program offers a wide range of programs including film, video, digital media, music and performance each year. The following events are scheduled for Fall 2006.

Best of the Archeology Film and Video Festival. This four part series ends on September 15th with the 7:30 PM screening of "The Secrets of the Karakoum" and "Queen of the Mountain". Admission: $6.00

Viewer's Choice. A night of surprises awaits as the audience selects the evening's film from five five-classic and cult titles. This film adventure is scheduled for 7:00 PM on September 16, October 21, November 18, and December 16. Admission is free with donations welcome.

David Rovics. Called the musical voice of the progressive movement in the US, David Rovics will visit Eugene on a nation wide tour on September 20 at 8 PM. Admission: $10.00+ donation

Video Slam. The final two slams for the summer are on September 24 and October 29. Artists screen their short videos in a competition following in the tradition of the Poetry slam. Show time is 4:00 PM with a sliding $2-5.00 admission. Find entry forms and more information at: www.proscenia.net/diva/slam/index.htm

Best of the Eugene Film Festival. The DIVA Center and the Eugene Film Festival collaborate in presenting the best film selections from the 2006 festival - as well as some excellent films that were not seen. The program begins September 27 at 8:00 PM. Admission: $5.00. Screenings are TBA for October, November, and December. Check the Media Arts Calendars for future dates.

"Bird by Snow" featuring Fletcher Tucker with Spencer Owen & Lusty Leaf. September 29, 8:00 PM. $5.00 at door.

Subway Dreams. NY filmmaker Anna Holtzman visits DIVA to screen and discuss her documentary exploring the lives of six musicians in audition for the Music Under New York subway performing artists program. September 30th at 8:00 PM. Admission: $5.00.

Bryan Boyce. Boyce, a San Francisco video artist, visits Eugene on October 12th bringing a collection of short videos featuring a mix of political satire and works inspired by music. The evening begins at 8:00 PM. Admission: $5.00

Night Gallery Film Festival. An international collection of documentary and feature length films will be screened October 13-14-15. Also included is a special selection of science fiction and horror films that will be shown late night. Show times vary (see online calendar listed above). Admission is $5.00. Eugene is the only West Coast host for this international event.

Best of the 32nd NW Film Festival Program. The Center is please to present the best of this year's annual NW Film Festival held in Portland this past spring. The program brightens the Center's silver screen on November 4th at 8:00 PM. Admission: $6.00.

The Ethnographic films of Gabriela Martinez. Award winning Gabriela Martinez will introduce and discuss her work as a documentary filmmaker focusing on the cultures of Peru. November 10th at 8:00 PM. Admission: $5.00

The Third Annual IMMI Fest. This unique event will be held December 8-9 and will feature guest artists The Knotty Ensemble from Vancouver, B.C., Canada. Local musicians will join the group in improvising live musical scores for classic silent films. Contemporary short videos with improvised music will also be screened. Admission is $5.00. Show times vary (see online calendar listed above).