Subject: Videomaker's Forum and Slam at DIVA

On Sunday, March 9th, DIVA offers a special forum for video artists that combines the opportunity to network with fellow artists and to participate in a competitive video slam.

VIDEOMAKER'S FORUM: 4:00 PM

The Videomaker's Forum is meant to inspire and assist emerging artists by providing the opportunity to share knowledge, experiences, and techniques with fellow video enthusiasts. Sessions include presentations, discussions, and periodic collaborative challenges.

VIDEOMAKER'S SLAM 5:30 PM

The Video Slam is an opportunity to screen short video works by participating artists in the spirit of the traditional poetry slam. At the end of each session the audience will choose a winning video. The monthly winners are compiled into an annual Best Of The DIVA Video Slam program that is celebrated in December.

Anyone, students, amateurs, or professionals, can screen their work.
